May 1, 2015 - March 16, 2022

It was a really hard day today. Sometimes an angel comes into your life disguised with four paws and some fur. Sharing your life with a dog means a LOT of love but also some crappy times. Having to say goodbye is the worst and most heart breaking part. I am so grateful we were able to share your life for the last 6 years. I hope you heard all the things we said and whispered to you as you left us. This was by far the hardest thing I've ever had to do.

You came into our lives almost 6 years ago, just after your 1st Bday. You snuck your way into my heart and completely won me over! I have become so very attached to you and I just don't know how to move forward without you. I will forever miss you talking back to me and belly-aching. You had the most beautiful voice and weren't afraid to share it! You were the biggest clown and always kept everyone laughing. I've always said you barked at every bug fart or flap of a bird's wing! Our house will be too quiet now that you're not here. But I'll hear your voice and I'll smile every time I think of you and my heart will flutter each time. I'll miss watching you walk around. You had the most beautiful walk. You had a way of strutting! Your feet reminded me of a show horse every time I watched you walk. And the cuddles! You were the best cuddler!! I will so miss the nap times we had cuddled on your favorite blanket on the sofa. Those marble eyeballs stole my heart each time you hung your head upside down and looked at me. We truly fought like hell to save you but it just wasn't enough. This was ultimately a fight we couldn't win. Rest easy my baby boy Maynard. Thank you for allowing us to be a part of your life and loving us. It simply wasn't long enough. You will forever be deeply missed. This one is going to hurt for a really long time.

“ My sweet Maynard, I'm so sorry you had to leave us so soon. It's hard knowing that our sweet little cuddly boy won't be here to talk back to us, argue with his brothers and cuddle up on the couch anymore. I'm so thankful you came to us when you did and I hope you know how much our family loved you and how much of an impact you made on us. We will forever love and miss you deeply, I'll see you again little turd
